Issued by: Moody's Legal Department

Applicable to: Moody's Corporation Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Controller (or persons performing similar functions)

Scope: Global

Effective Date: November 23, 2010

POLICY

Moody's Corporation (the "Company") is committed to conducting its business in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations and the highest standards of business conduct, and to full and accurate financial disclosure in compliance with applicable law. This Code of Ethics, which applies to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Controller (or persons performing similar functions) (collectively, "Senior Officers"), sets forth specific policies to guide you in the performance of your duties.

As a Senior Officer, you must not only comply with applicable law; you also must engage in and promote honest and ethical conduct and abide by Moody's Code of Business Conduct and other Company policies and procedures that govern the conduct of our business. Your leadership responsibilities include creating a culture of ethical business conduct and commitment to compliance, maintaining a work environment that encourages employees to raise concerns, and promptly addressing employee compliance concerns.

COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS

You are required to comply with the laws, rules and regulations that govern the conduct of our business and to report any suspected violations in accordance with the section below entitled "COMPLIANCE WITH CODE OF ETHICS."

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Your obligation to conduct the Company's business in an honest and ethical manner includes the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships. No Senior Officer shall make any investment, accept any position or benefits, participate in any transaction or business arrangement, or otherwise act in a manner that creates or appears to create a conflict of interest unless the Senior Officer makes full disclosure of all facts and circumstances to the General Counsel and the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee"), and obtains the prior written approval of the full Board of Directors.

DISCLOSURES

It is Company policy to make full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations in all reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the Securities and Exchange Commission and in all other public communications made by the Company. As a Senior Officer, you are required to promote compliance with this policy and to abide by Company standards, policies and procedures designed to promote compliance with this policy.

COMPLIANCE WITH CODE OF ETHICS

If you know of or suspect a violation of applicable laws, rules or regulations or this Code of Ethics, you must immediately report that information to the General Counsel. If, for any reason, the Senior Officer deems it inappropriate to report the suspected violation to the General Counsel, the Senior Officer may make his or her report to any member of the Audit Committee. No one will be subject to retaliation because of a good faith report of a suspected violation.

Violations of this Code of Ethics may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. The Audit Committee shall determine, or shall designate appropriate persons to determine, appropriate action in response to violations of this Code.

WAIVERS OF CODE OF ETHICS

If you would like to seek a waiver of the Code of Ethics, you must make full disclosure of your particular circumstances to the General Counsel and the Chairman of the Audit Committee, and obtain the written approval of the full Board of Directors. Amendments to and waivers of this Code of Ethics will be publicly disclosed as required by applicable law and regulations.

NO RIGHTS CREATED

This Code of Ethics is a statement of certain fundamental principles, policies and procedures that govern the Company's Senior Officers in the conduct of the Company's business. It is not intended to and does not create any rights in any employee, client, supplier, competitor, shareholder, or any other person or entity.
